Non-profit pitches new plans for Buffalo Nature Trail

BUFFALO

Non-profit pitches new plans for Buffalo Nature Trail

Advertisement. Your video will resume in 24 seconds.

It's called The Riverline and it would stretch from canalside to the Buffalo River in South Buffalo.

Wednesday, the Western New York Land Conservancy held a virtual meeting about this project. Congressman Brian Higgins spoke in support of it.

“A visionary project, that will not only provide new recreational opportunities, for the historic neighborhoods along the Buffalo River but will also connect us to the river’s natural environment and to our city’s industrial heritage,” said Representative Higgins.

The Riverline Trail has been in the works now for four years.
EXCLUSIVE: Buffalo police body cam footage of a raid by bounty hunters is an ‘absolute outrage,’ attorney says

by Daniel Telvock / Apr 29, 2021
Let’s “Gogh” Buffalo! An immersive Vincent Van Gogh experience is coming to the Eastern Hills Mall

by Kaley Lynch / Apr 30, 2021
COIVD-19 Vaccine: Walk-in appointments at state sites start today

by Angelica Morrison / Apr 29, 2021

Read the Full Article →
Cuomo has not yet been interviewed by independent investigators looking to sexual harassment allegations

CAO Head Start reflects on annual Week of the Young Child

Local higher education leaders say proposed free community college will benefit schools & students

Get an inside look at M&T Bank's new tech hub inside the Seneca One tower

Shop Small 716: Shop 716 e-gift card

Restaurants welcome loosening of restrictions
Judge orders state health department to revisit social distancing requirement in schools

School says it won’t employ vaccinated teachers: ‘We did not follow tyrannic measures’

7 protesters arrested in Elizabeth City in wake of independent autopsy findings in Andrew Brown Jr. case

Glimmer of hope for local fairs and festivals as Governor Cuomo gives green light to the New York State Fair

Read more stories →

MORE STORIES
CEO fired after publicly ridiculing Tennessee teen over his prom dress

COVID-19 and tourism: Where can U.S. citizens travel?
To celebrate Arbor Day, New York State has designated additional funding for urban and community forestry. DETAILS: trib.al/OjG8wVg

In a statement Friday, the two pharmaceuticals said their submission to the European Medicines Agency is based on an advanced study in more than 2,000 adolescents that showed their vaccine to be safe and effective. trib.al/kx5Iext
Non-profit pitches new plans for Buffalo Nature Trail | News 4 Buffalo

4/30/2021

$10,000 reward offered for help locating missing Buff State student

Teen charged with killing man in Buffalo; police investigate another shooting hours later

4 Warn Weather

Let's “Gogh” Buffalo! An immersive Vincent Van Gogh experience is coming to the Eastern Hills Mall

Buffalo man sentenced to 3 years in prison on gun charge after detective's gun fell into his vehicle during attempted arrest

Watch News 4 Now

Bills DE Greg Rousseau already has Buffalo connections through family ties
47°